

LANDSCAPE, ENCLOSURE AND RURAL SOCIETY IN POST-MEDIEVAL BRITAIN AND EUROPE

A two-day interdisciplinary conference sponsored by the AHRC, the Historical Geography Research Group and Economic History Society

DE HAVILLAND CAMPUS, UNIVERSITY OF HERTFORDSHIRE,
HATFIELD

THURS 25- FRI 26 JUNE 2009

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: PROFESSOR T. WILLIAMSON, UNIVERSITY OF EAST ANGLIA

Papers include:

Ian Whyte	Parliamentary enclosure and society in an upland context: Watermillock, Cumbria.
Robert Clark	Enclosure and Enclosures in Sense and Sensibility.
Bill Shannon	More than mere stones: the partitioning of early-modern intercommoned wastes.
Alun Howkins	The use and abuse of commons and waste 1845-1914.
Nicola Whyte	Contested landscapes: piecemeal enclosures, custom and the power of the past.
Ben Cowell	The Commons Preservation Society.
Matthew Cragoe	John Clare and the landscape of Anglicanism.
Simon White	Landscape Icons and the Rural Community in the Poetry of John Clare.
Ian Waite	Hastening to utter decay: John Clare's Helpston and the destruction of Langley Bush.

For a full programme and more information see www.landscapeandenclosure.com

Or contact: s.webster@herts.ac.uk