

Landscape in Theory: a multidisciplinary symposium

26 June 2008

Machicado Suite, Willoughby Hall, University of Nottingham

Programme

9.30-10.00	Registration & coffee
10.00-10.15	Introduction: Stephen Daniels, Director of AHRC Landscape and Environment Programme
10.15-11.15	Presentations (chair Stephen Daniels)

Panellists

David Matless	Professor of Cultural Geography, University of Nottingham
WJT Mitchell	Professor of English and Art History, University of Chicago
Anne Whiston Spiri	Professor of Landscape Architecture, MIT

11.15-12.15	Discussion
-------------	------------

Respondents

Sophie Thomas	Lecturer in English, University of Sussex
Kenneth Olwig	Professor of Landscape Planning, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences

12.15-1.00	Lunch
------------	-------

1.00-2.00 Presentations (chair Julie Sanders, Professor of English and Drama, University of Nottingham)

Panellists

Tim Ingold	Professor of Anthropology, University of Aberdeen
Mike Pearson	Professor of Performance Studies, University of Aberystwyth
Kate Chedgzoy	Professor Renaissance Literature, University of Newcastle

2.00-3.00 Discussion

Respondents

Angela Piccini	RCUK Research Fellow in Performativity, Place and Space, University of Bristol
John Wylie	Senior Lecturer in Geography, University of Exeter
Matthew Johnson	Professor of Archaeology, University of Southampton

3.00-3.30 Tea

3.30-4.30 Patrick Keiller, Filmmaker and Research Fellow, Royal College of Art in conversation with Patrick Wright, Professor of Cultural Studies, Nottingham Trent University and Doreen Massey, Professor of Geography, Open University

4.30-5.30 Plenary discussion

5.30 Wine Reception

---

The Leverhulme Trust

---

